

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO HOLD A REVIEW OF A PREMISES LICENCE UNDER THE GAMBLING ACT 2005

Notice is hereby given that the following licensing authority:

[Give the name of the licensing authority]

intends to hold a review under section 201 of the Gambling Act 2005 of the premises licence which is in force at the following premises:

[Give the trading name used at the premises, and the address of the premises (or, if not known, give a description of the premises and their location)]

The following type of licence applies to the premises:

The licensing authority intends to hold the review for the following reasons:

The licence holder or a responsible authority may make representations in writing to the licensing authority about the review, as may any of the following persons:

- A person who lives sufficiently close to the premises likely to be affected by the authorised activities
- A person who has business interests that might be affected by the authorised activities
- A person who represents someone in any of the above two categories

Representations may be made during the period of 28 consecutive days beginning on the date on which notice of the intention to hold a review was given to the licence holder. That period ends on:

[Insert last day on which representations may be made in relation to the application.]

Further information about the review is available from the licensing authority.

It is an offence under section 342 of the Gambling Act 2005 if a person, without reasonable excuse, gives to a licensing authority for a purpose connected with that Act information which is false or misleading.
