

Privacy Notice

Planning Consultations

This Privacy Notice is designed to help you understand how and why Ryedale District Council processes your personal data in relation to planning consultations. This notice should be read in conjunction with the Council's Corporate Privacy Notice.

Who are you?

Ryedale District Council is a 'Data Controller' as defined by Article 4(7) of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

The Council is required to host consultations relating to:

- The Local Plan and supporting evidence
- Planning Policy
- Planning Guidance and Advice Notes
- Conservation Area Appraisals
- Community Infrastructure Levy

The Council has appointed Veritau Ltd to be their Data Protection Officer. Their contact details are:

Data Protection Officer
Veritau Ltd
County Hall
Racecourse Lane
Northallerton
DL7 8AL
DPA@ryedale.gov.uk // 01609 53 2526

What Personal Data of mine do you collect?

As part of the consultation process the Council is required to collect:

- your name,
- contact Details,
- your address,
- any views that you wish to submit.

What is the purpose of collecting my Personal Data?

The personal data that you provide will be used to enable the Council to identify who has responded to Planning Policy consultations and, where requested, to enable the Council to correspond with you regarding upcoming consultations relating to Planning Policies.

Who do you share this data with?

Your representation, including your name, will be made available to all interested parties in relation to the document on which you have made a representation, including the Planning Inspector appointed by the Secretary of State to inspect (or in the case of Community Infrastructure Levy the appointed Examiner) documents produced as part of the Local Plan.

Your contact details (postal address, email address and telephone) will be redacted and will not be made available.

How long do you keep this data for?

Your personal data will be stored indefinitely. In the event that you have requested to be notified of future planning policy documents, your personal data will be held for that purpose until such time that you notify the Council that you no longer wish your personal data to be held.

What is your legal basis for processing this data?

The legal basis for this processing is in the 2004 Planning and Compulsory Purchase Act, in conjunction with the Town and Country Planning Regulation 2012 (as amended).

Where you have requested to be contacted in relation to the progress of a consultation or consultations we think you may be interested in, then this is based on your consent which can be withdrawn at any time.

For more information about how the Council uses your data, including your privacy rights and the complaints process, please see our Corporate Privacy Notice.