The data was sold to different organisations five times within the financial year. Buyers of the data: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If possible under FOI laws, may you please provide further information on the buyers of the data in each instance and whether they purchased data from the full electoral register or the ‘open register”. May you please provide the figures per financial year for the following years: 2018/19, 2017/18 and 2016/17. • For example, in 2018/19, the council sold data to external organisations 5 times. The council made £1200 in total from these 5 sales. One sale was to the credit agency Equifax, amounting to £1000. In this instance, Equifax purchased data from the full register. Definitions for clarity: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The “full” electoral register: lists the names and addresses of everyone who is registered to vote in public elections. The personal data in the register must always be processed in line with data-protection legislation. 	Fully Answered

Reference Number	Date Response Sent	Description	Outcome
		Government departments may buy the register from local registration officers and use it to help prevent and detect crime. They can also use it to safeguard national security by checking the background of job applicants and employees. Credit reference agencies can buy the register. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The “open” register: is an extract of the electoral register, but is not used for elections. It can be bought by any person, company or organisation. For example, it is used by businesses and charities to confirm name and address details. The personal data in the register must always be processed in line with data-protection legislation. SOURCE; http://www.legislation.gov.uk/en/uksi/2013/3198/schedule/3/chapter/2/made

If so, please provide a breakdown of these.	Fully Answered
FOI6185	06-Dec-2019	Information requested: Please note this request relates to all residential buildings within the local authority area. The fact that the local authority does not own housing stock is therefore not a relevant reason to refuse to respond or to provide a nil response. I am also not asking for individual buildings to be identified, therefore an exemption on public safety grounds would not stand. This line of argument has been tested on appeal in previous requests. On July 18, the Ministry for Housing, Communities and Local Government wrote to all local authorities in England requiring them to begin gathering data about tower blocks in their area (residential buildings above 18m) and the materials used in the external wall. The letter is published here: https://assets.publishing.service.gov.uk/government/uploads/system/uploads/attachment_data/file/817811/Letter_to_Local_Authorities_18_July.pdf	Fully Answered

FOI6317	29-Nov-2019	I am a researcher at the University of Lincoln. We are about to embark on a large 3-year project exploring how parents organise work and childcare. We expect that reaching fathers will be particularly difficult and thus hope you are able to share the details of any groups you are aware of in your area which offer 'Dads' meet ups/sessions. Ideally I am looking for the organisation name and email address of those offering 'Dads' sessions. This may include children's centres, libraries etc.	Transferred
