CONFIDENTIAL / COMMERCIALLY SENSITIVE INFORMATION FORM

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

ENVIRONMENTAL INFORMATION REGULATIONS 2004

From time to time, the Council receives requests for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA) or the Environmental Information Regulations 2004 (EIR). Both the FOIA and the EIR provide a means by which the public can request any information held by the Council. Such requests can relate to information which may be considered confidential and/or commercially sensitive. When dealing with such requests, the Council must consider whether the information in question is exempt/excepted from disclosure. Completed forms outlining confidential and/or commercially sensitive information will be taken into account in this process, however, they are not conclusive.

The Council is responsible for determining at its absolute discretion, whether the information provided is exempt/excepted from disclosure under the FOIA or the EIR.
